

Ocean Water Desalination Workshop
“Past Experiences Steering Future Directions”

August 8, 2003

West Basin Municipal Water District
National Water Research Institute
U. S. Desalination Coalition

17140 South Avalon Blvd.
Carson, California

Agenda:

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 8:30 to 9:00 | Welcome and Introduction
Ocean Water Desalination in Southern California
Speaker: Darryl Miller
General Manager
West Basin MWD |
| 9:00 to 9:30 | The Value of Water
Speaker: Ron Linsky
Executive Director
National Water Research Institute |
| 9:30 to 10:15 | Nation’s First Large-Scale Ocean Water Desalination Facility
Speaker: Don Lindeman, CDM
Project Manager
Tampa Bay Water |
| 10:15 to 10:45 | Break |
| 10:45 to 11:30 | Global Experience in Ocean Water Desalination
Speaker: José del Castillo,
Manager of Desalination Sales for the International Division
Ondeo Inc.
(World’s largest ocean water desalination contract operator) |
| 11:30 to 12:00 | National Desalination Legislation
Speaker: Hal Furman
Executive Director
U.S. Desalination Coalition |

- 12:00 to 1:00 Luncheon Speaker
State Assembly Member Canciamilla (invited)
Chairman, Assembly Committee on Water Parks and Wildlife
- 1:00 to 1:45 Impacts of Ocean Water Desalination
Speaker: Dave Furakawa
 President
 Separation Consultants, Inc.
- 1:45 to 2:30 Lessons Learned from Decades of Ocean Water Desalination
Speaker: Manuel Farinas Iglesias
 Desalination Manager
 Pridesa
 (Designs, builds, and operates over 50 ocean water desalination plants)
- 2:30 to 3:00 Break
- 3:00 to 4:00 Brine Discharge Impacts Upon Three Sites in California
Speakers: Dr. Scott Jenkins (invited)
 Dr. Jeff Graham
 Scripps Institute
- 4:00 to 4:30 Wrap Up
Speaker: Darryl Miller
 General Manager
 West Basin Municipal Water District