

Exhibit "B"

Additional Bidder & Team Information

OCEAN-FRIENDLY LANDSCAPE PROGRAM – VENDOR RECOMMENDATION

The Prime Consultants assembled teams of sub-contractors to assist in implementation of the various parts of this project.

HydroEarth, Inc. (Prime Consultant)

HydroEarth, Inc. has over five years of experience with the manufacture and installation of weather-based controller programs and experience with manufacturing and installing these devices. They were founded in 2004 and are located in Signal Hill, California.

For this project, HydroEarth assembled a team that include the following: 1) Ted Hunt (Chief Research Scientist responsible for the research run-off study); 2) Niagara Conservation Corporation (marketing); 3) Landscape Conservation Solutions (installation of controllers); 4) GreenWorld Solutions, Inc. (perform audits); and 5) AquaSave (installation of controllers).

C – F Technologies (Prime Consultant)

C – F Technologies is a company specializing in advanced fluid technology through the use of physical water treatment devices that eliminates or substantially reduces the use of chemicals in water treatment applications. They were founded in 2001 and are located in Bakersfield, California.

For this project, C – F Technologies assembled a team that include the following: 1) Valley Soil (audits); 2) Rain Bird Corporation (controllers); 3) Michael Harris (controller installer, trainer and customer service); 4) Ted Hike (certified installer and system auditor); 5) Scott Kolo (salesman for Rainbird); and 6) Dave Shane (Certified Landscape Irrigation Auditor).